Professor K. H. Metzler,
Syracuse University.

Dear Professor Metzler:

It was with the deepest regret that I had to cancel my arrangements. But on sunday I had to go to bed and I am still in the house. If I had gone to Syracuse I could not have spoken, and you would probably have had an influenza patient for a week. I am greatly disappointed. Please tell Mrs. Metzler that I appreciate her offer of hospitality.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Dear Mr Brown -

It was with the utmost regret that I had to telegraph cancelling my engagement. But I had been suffering from a bad cold since Sunday last & was positively as an hour ago I could hardly speak & on Monday the doctor forbade my travelling. I have been confined to the house for nine days & am much better.

I w^d apologize was it not that the Events were beyond my ordering. I hope that you were able to make other satisfactory arrangements for your dinner.

Yours &c

Dear Mr^s Metzger.

It was with the deepest regret that I had to cancel my engagement. But on Monday I had to go to bed & am still in the house. If I had gone to Dyssense I c^d not have spoken & you w^d probably have had an influenza patient for a week. ~~but~~ I am greatly disappointed. Please tell Mr^s Metzger that I shall write her after the fields
